

Kitia Touré

Filmmaker (Ivory Coast)

A native of Ayame in 1956 Kitia Touré holds a doctorate in literary studies at the University of Paris (IV) in 1985;

Teaching film and media in academic institutions in Côte d'Ivoire (1993 - 1996) and Art and Communication at CNU (National University Council) and the CAM in France (2003-2008);

Author of several literary works for which he received several distinctions, he is also author of several feature films, documentaries, awareness and education awards in various festivals including the Jury Prize at the Carthage Film Festival (1985) , Special Jury Prize at the festival "Vues d'Afrique" in Montreal - Canada, (1986) prices UNICEF (1989) and PROMACO (1993) FESPACO in Burkina Faso.

Director of the Company Ivorian Cinema and Audiovisual Ministry of Culture of Côte d'Ivoire (1994 - 2000);

Technical Adviser to the Minister of Culture of Côte d'Ivoire since January 2010;

Currently, Managing Director of the Office National du Film Côte d'Ivoire since July 2011;

Kitia Toure is an Officer of the Order of Merit of the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire year as a filmmaker.